

Midvale Hub

We are here to assist children and families to grow, learn and thrive.

Aboriginal Family Support Programs

Aboriginal Family Support Programs

For many years the Midvale Hub has been employing local Aboriginal people to provide support for local families. Our dedicated team ensure that programs offered at the Hub are culturally appropriate and meet the needs of local Aboriginal families.

Midvale Hub Sites at Middle Swan and Clayton View

Our Hub sites at Middle Swan and Clayton View were designed by a local Aboriginal Reference Group. The sites were originally federally funded as part of the Closing the Gap initiative. Formerly known as the Swan Children and Family Centres, the sites are part of the Midvale Hub.

Aboriginal Outreach Workers

Our Aboriginal Outreach Workers provide support for families and children at home, in the community, at Hub sites and in local schools. The Outreach workers introduce and link families to early childhood services, health services, family support services and adult education opportunities that are available at the Hub and in the wider community.

Aboriginal Health Services

Derbarl Yerrigan Aboriginal Health provides health services at our Hub health clinics. A range of other free health services also operate out of the Hub health clinics which can be accessed by Aboriginal families.

Aboriginal Playgroups

The Midvale Hub's Aboriginal Playgroups Gnarnk Koolangka are provided by qualified Aboriginal Educators in a culturally sensitive manner. Elders, parents and caregivers come together to have fun and give their children a positive start in life through improving early childhood development and school readiness.
